The Parkinson family sailed from England on the steamer "European" and arrived in New Orleans, 1 Oct. 1848. From there they took passage up the Mississippi river on the steamboat "Josh R. Lawrence" to St. Louis.

The first family they encountered while looking for a place to rent was Mormons. The very first time Samuel or any of the family had ever seen or heard of the Mormon people.

MORMON - MOTHER AND HER EIGHT DAUGHTERS

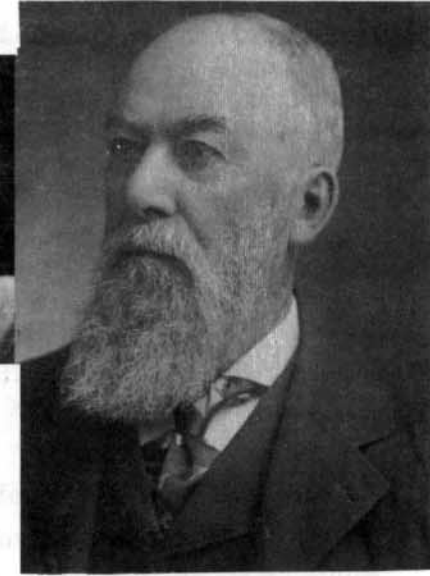

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH SMART
Age 70

The accompanying picture shows Mrs. Charlotte Elizabeth Smart Parkinson, widow of Samuel Rose Parkinson, and her eight daughters, all living. Mrs. Parkinson is a daughter of the late Thomas Sharratt Smart of Franklin, Idaho, where her daughters and two sons, Joseph S. and Fred S. Parkinson of Rexburg, Idaho were born. The mother is proud of the fact that all were married in the temple and have large families. Those in the group are, left to right, the mother who resides at Preston, Idaho; Mrs. O. L. Packer, Preston, Ida.; Mrs. C. E. Lloyd, St. Anthony, Ida.; Mrs. W. P. Monson, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Nephi Larson, Preston, Ida.; Mrs. Rufus Leigh, Salt Lake; Mrs. P. P. Peterson, Idaho Falls; Mrs. I. A. Smoot, Salt Lake; Mrs. Lester R. Taylor, Provo, Utah.
