May you be faithful kind and true to life long Journey end god bless the and thy partner too and always be your friend

Within this Book so pure and white
Let none but friends presume to write
But let each line with friendship given
Direct the readers thoughts to heaven

I shall long and kindly remember the unremitting kindness I have experienced from your Sisterly hand. may the measure you have meted out to me be returned to you heaped up shaken to gether pressed down and running over

If there be a Crime of deeper dye then all the guilty train of human vices it is ingratitude ” the Lord preserve me from such a Crime

[poetry p. 2]

2

May you live to fulfill your Mission on earth with honor and prosperity and live happily with your partner as long as life is desirable

May you live in the future as you have in the past to sustain the glorious truthes of the Everlasting Gospel ~~with~~ which teaches saints how to live and then to die and then again to live and never Die kind words are the bright flowers of earthly existence they should be used especially around the fireside circle they are Jewels beyond price and powerful to heal the wounded heart and make the weighed down Spirit glad

[poetry p. 3]

3

May the friendship we have made Incerase as years go by

Be true to your friends yourself and your God

May your last days be your bist life's race well run

Life's work well done
Now Comes rest for evermore

Feb 06 -/87 When hills and vallies devide us and we are far apart remember Oh remember that you are not forgot

Mar 29/87 in Boise Penitentiary in my prison sell I set thinking Mother dear of you and my bright and happy home so far away but my time will soon be up when I will be home again and I try to Cheer my Comrads while I stay

[poetry p. 4]

1

Oh my love one write to me
There's naught would please me better Then to have good news from the
A Kind and loving letter
Naming all our cottage flowers
And breathing love and duty
Sunshine on my lonely hours
A Scene of rarest beauty

2

Down in my hearts deep well
Love has treasured thoughts of thee
And thy Spirit like a spell
Ever clings in faith to me
Mid Clouds and Sunshine ever
I will be to thee the same
And time and distance never Shall efface thy Cherished name

3

I will ever cling to thee
Our plighted love grows stronger
Far more beautiful to me
Art thou as time grows longer
Four and thirty years have past
Since thou gave thy hart to me
And I love the more to day

Then when making love to thee

4

Mid toil and self denial
We have trod lifes rugged road
Togeather sharing trial

[poetry p. 5]

5

Helping bear each others load
Older now thy face us grown Bearing marks of toil and care
And the hand of time has sown
Silver threads among thy hair

5

~~In sun or Cloudy weather
Thy love has never altered
We climb lifes rugged hills together
Thy heart has never faltered
[insert] Fervently I grasp my hand
Fervently I breathe a prayer
Father had us to that land where eternal joys we'll share~~

5

In sun or cloudy weather
Thy love has never altered
We Climb lifes rugged hills togeather
Thy heart has never faltered
Fervently i grasp thy hand
Fervently i breathe a prayer
Father lead us to that land
Where eternal joys we'll share

[poetry p. 6]

6

Do the loved ones pray for me
While an exile i may roam
On land or raging Sea
Banished from my lovely home

1

Home i never can forget
My source of greatest plesure
Far or near my heart is set
Upon that priceless treasure

2

3

There my partner kind and true
And my darling children dwell i am exiled here for you
All because i love you well

4

I Can never give you up
I Can never Cast you off
Rather drink lifes bitter cup
At the hands of those who Scoff

5

List of martyrs may be long
Who have perished in the flames
Who for truth have suffered wrong
Time cannot efface their names

6

Many heroes have been slain
But the right will yet control
Strong may be the tyrant's chain
But it cannot bind the soul

8
For this life will not last long

[poetry p. 7]

7

All things mortal soon will end
Give us strength to suffer wrong
And the right and truth defend

7

What is liberty and life
If we're reft of those we love
Rather perish in the strife
Then we'll met them all above

Strengthen Love's Chaine

1

Husbands and wives shuld forever
Add strenth to the chain of their love
Deeds of unkindness may sever
The bonds of affection remove

2

One things may lead to another
Unkindness and harsh words may sting Hatred may grow for each other
And oft separation may bring

3

Words of unkindness are spoken
That rankle the heart to the Core
The bonds of affection are broken
The heart is left bleeding and sore

4

Homes that are freighted with sorrow

Have once had a promise of joy
Hope from the future would borrow
But time would their castles destroy

Two Friends in exile

1 We have been to each a brother
And borne each others load
We have Comforted each other
As we trod the dusty road

2 Through the valleys o'er the mountains
Where lofty pines grow still Thirsty at the gushing fountains
We've stooped to drink our fill

3 We have hunted for the sage hen
Our hunger to appease
And traveled through the mountain when
The rushing streams would freeze

4 We've faced the storm the splashing rain
The Chilling sleet and snow
And plodded o'er the sun parched plain
Where not a stream did flow

5 We have wandered long in exile
With burning thoughts of home
Each act of love each gentle smile
Brings gladness while we roam

6 And oft we wish the loved ones near
The thought bring joy and pain
We sigh to know they Cannot here
And long for home again

[poetry p. 9]

7 we kneel in solemn earnest prayer
 And ask that God will bless
 The dearly Cherished loved ones there
 And save them from distress

8 Neath persecutions rod we smart
 The pilgrims pathway roam
 From loving wives and children part
 And wander from our home

9 Tis not American to wed
 More wives then one just now
 But mistresses are kept instead
 Society will allow

10 The world with woman go astray
 One Wife and harlots then
 They ask us turn our Wives away
 And be like other men

11 To home, our covenant and to God
 To wives and Children too
 Forsake the path the prophets trad
 To all these be untrue

12 They ask us barter Heaven away
 Hopes of eternal worth
 They ask a price we cannot pay
 For liberty on earth

[poetry p. 10]

10

Two friends exiled for Conscience Sake

1

For Cons sakes we're suffered wrong
 And born the hate of men
 And toiled along when weak or Strong
 To teach the gospel plan
 We have been to each a brother
 And shared each others load
 We have Comforted each other
 As we trod the dusty road

2

Though the valleys o'er the mountains
 Where lofty pines grow still
 Thursty at the gushing fountains
 We stooped to drink our fill
 We have hunted for the sage hen
 Our hunger to appease
 And traveled throught the mountain when
 The rushing streams did freeze

3

We faced the storm the splashing rain
 The Chilling sleet and snow
 And pleaded o'er the sun parched plain
 Where not a stream did flow
 We have wandered long in exile
 With burning thoughts of home
 Each act of love each gentle smile
 Brings gladness while we roam

[poetry p. 11]

11

4

And oft we wish the loved ones near
 The thought gives joy and pain

We sigh to know they are not here
 And long for home again
 We kneel in solemn earnest prayer
 And ask that God will bless
 The dearly Cherished loved ones there
 And keep them from distress

5

Neath persecutions rod we Smart
 The pilgrims pathway roam
 From loving wives and children part
 And leave our much loved home
 Tis true we neither drink nor Swear
 Nor enemies dispoil Treat others kindly every where
 And live by honest toil

6

We found a barren desert here
 Where no one else would Come
 The Indian in his wild career
 Had claimed it for his home
 But soon we dug the sage brush up
 Ask'd God to bless the soil
 We plowed and sowed it yielded up
 Rich harvests for our toil

[poetry p. 12]

12

7

And now where once the sage brush grew
 See apples pears and plums
 And golden grain spread out to view
 And Countless happy homes
 Where night and morn the song of praise

Swells on the balmy air
 Where loving family Circle raise
 There hearts in humble prayer

8

But still the feelings deep and strong
 Our enemies pervade
 That we have dwelt in peace to long
 Our peaceful homes they raid
 They gather like a hurricane Polygamy they say
 Is not at all American
 And must be done away

9

Tis not American to wed
 More wives then one Just now
 But mistresses are kept instead
 American allow
 The world with woman go astray
 One wife and harlots then
 They ask us burn our wives away
 And be like other men

[poetry p. 13]

13

10

We might drink and Swear and pander
 To the vices of the day
 And with lewdest harlots wander
 But put our wives away
 We might kill our Children slyly
 Disrupting natures way
 Be cunning base and wily

But put our wives away
11

Change our virtues for their vices in all things be like them
And adopt the worlds devices
Polygamy condemn
All the world would then receive us
Would treat us as its own
Only force our wives to leave us
Them cruelly disown

12

Then Utah would be made a State
Appear on fames fair rolls
And all her people would be great
Admitted to the polls
They say it is an idle dream
To fight this nations will
We know great odds against us seem But God is greater still

[poetry p. 14]

14

13

Twass he in majesty and awe
Commanded us obey
This ancient Patriarchal law
We Cannot Cast away
Far better perish at the stake
Or die in loathsom Cell
Then leave the truth and Choose to take
The downward road to hell

14

To home our Covenants and to God

They bid us be untrue
Forsake the path the prophits trod
Our wives and Children to
They ask us barter heaven away
Our hopes of priceless worth
They ask a price we Cannot pay
For liberty on earth

15

We love our wives and Children more Then all that earth can give Without them we'd feel wretched poor
And would not wish to live
We'll meet them in a fairer clime
On the Celestial shore
Away beyond the Shores of time
Where mortals weep no more

[poetry p. 15]

15

Time present is time that is our
And dutys the work to be done
Then dig up the weeds from the flowers
And let in the rays of the sun

6

Banish the demon resentment
And rule by the great power of love
Treasure the Jewel contentment
And angels will smile from above

7

Thy home be it palace or Cot

If true love and duty be there
 To thee twill be earths dearest spot
 Where love ones will solace thy care

8

There lifes greatest riches are found
 And a foretaste of heaven above
 How precious the joys that abounds in the home that is founded on love
